As per District and JCPH guidelines, we will pivot to a 100% Remote Learning environment starting on Monday November 16th. Here are the specific expectations for students and staff at DRHS:

- We will delete the alpha groupings of students. We will rotate Navy & Cardinal days (Navy - Cardinal - Navy - Cardinal - Purple – All Students)

- We will continue with Fridays being our current Purple Day Schedule. Students and teachers meet each block in a synchronous manner to start each block for attendance and initial direction from the teacher. The teachers then can work with small groups of students the remainder of the block while the remaining members of the class sign off and get to work on the assignment – possibly completing an exit ticket item at the end of the block based on the learning goal for the day in an asynchronous manner.

- Study Halls will no longer meet virtually. Teachers will be available to study hall students via email messages.

- Seminar will continue to meet virtually as scheduled

- Finals will be modified to be Navy Day Finals on Friday 12/18 and Cardinal Day Finals on Monday 12/21. No early finals – no exceptions.

- Tuesday 12/22 will be a Finals Make Up and Teacher Check Out Day.

- Jeffco Transition Services, Career Explore Training and Internships, and IEP Assessments will be allowed to continue meeting in person with students. Athletics and Activities will continue with restrictions – please see specific guidelines from team and activity coaches and sponsors.

- Assuming we are back on Hybrid in January, we will start the semester with a Remote Purple Day (1/6) followed by a Remote Navy Day (1/7) followed by a Remote Cardinal Day (1/8) prior to moving back into alpha groups on 1/11.

Dakota Ridge High School – Pivot to 100% Remote Learning

Dakota Ridge will be continuing with the same learning models for second semester. Per the district and JCPH guidelines, we will have a remote option and In Person Hybrid option. ALL remote learning will continue to be synchronous, where students will be logging in during the posted bell times and working with a live instructor. Please use this link to communicate your student’s preferred learning model (remote/in-person/hybrid). All selections will be honored and last through the remainder of the 2020/2021 School Year. Info on Jeffco Drug Intervention Services from DRHS Nurse Amy Doolittle

As the school nurse, a component of Amy Doolittle's job is to provide Drug Intervention (and Prevention) Services. Amy meets with students in different capacities and discussions may include drug education, positive decision-making, goal setting and strategies for school re-engagement. Amy also works with school counselors/staff to support collaboration around your student's needs being met. Check out the DIS Newsletter, which has great information and resources for parents.

Successful Remote Learner Questions

Executive Functioning:

- While by yourself, are you able to organize your time, stick to a schedule, prioritize what work needs to be completed and keep track of all tasks that are required of you?
- Are you able to be self-directed and take action as needed to get things done without a teacher or family member sitting next to you?
- Do you know how to check Infinite Campus to know where you stand in your classes and what work needs to be completed?

Home Work Space:

- Do you have a quiet, clean, and orderly workspace at home in which to work?
- Will you have a go-to adult at home to provide immediate help with any class or tech issues that may arise?

Self-Advocacy:

- Do you know where to find your teacher’s contact information on the school website?
- If you have questions or are confused about something, are you comfortable emailing your teachers and/or meeting with them individually to resolve the issue?

Tech Skills:

- Do you know your correct login information to Infinite Campus, Google Classroom, Schoology, Edgenuity or any other tool that your teachers utilize?
- Can you successfully navigate Infinite Campus, Google Classroom, Schoology, Edgenuity or any other tool that your teachers utilize?
- If you’re having tech issues, do you tend to shut down and give up, or are you willing to reach out and seek support?

Required Tech:

- Do you have daily access to reliable and suitable internet?
- Do you have daily access to a reliable computer/Chromebook, or device with a full keyboard that is not shared with anyone else?
- If your internet goes out, do you have another location where you could reliably complete your schoolwork for the time being?

Communication:

- Are you able to contact your teacher, counselor, administrator or the main office to resolve whatever issues you may encounter?
- If you don’t hear from someone immediately, are you willing to reach out again to ensure you get an answer?
- Are you willing to check and use your email daily?
